REJECTED BY FEDERAL OFFICERS

No Funds On Hand to Send Recruits Home

MANY SEEK EMPLOYMENT

In Capital City Or Appeal to Friends for Financial Assistance—Weeding Out Process Continues and Scores of Guardsmen Are Turned Down Because of Physical Defects.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Camp Willis, Columbus, July 7.—Lack of finances from the federal government has resulted in an unusual condition at the Ohio mobilization camp. Hundreds of would-be soldiers who have been disqualified for service because of physical defects have been left financially stranded in Columbus.

Officers declare they do not have sufficient funds to send rejected recruits to their homes and say there is no provision in the regulations for the feeding of men who have been rejected. One appropriation of $1000 received to return home the rejected members of the eighth regiment was exhausted on the first three companies, it was said.

Each private rejected is entitled to railroad fare home and a salary of 50 cents a day since the date the guard was called out.

Many of the rejected men, it was said, have been forced to find employment in Columbus or borrow money from friends pending receipt of additional finances from the war department.

The weeding out process is continuing. Every day scores of the guardsmen are being rejected by the federal mustering officers because of physical defects. Physical examinations given the recruits is said to be severe. Half a dozen young men who they had been rejected at Camp Willis successfully passed the physical examinations at the Columbus barracks, the regular United States army post here.

National guardsmen whose terms of enlistment expire while they are at Camp Willis will be forced to remain in the service, at least during the duration of the camp. Major Robert W. Mearns, chief federal mustering officer said today, because of the contemplated order to call out the reserves. The decision was given several officers who reported that the enlistments of some of their men would expire within a day or two.

No Ohio troops will be moved to the Mexican border for at least two weeks, in the opinion of Captain H. H. Tebbetts, one of the regular army officers who is assisting in mustering the guardsmen into the federal service. The entire corps of mustering officers concur in this opinion.

The mustering of the battalion of engineers, which was begun yesterday and which was cited by some as an indication that these troops would be ordered to move south ahead of infantry regiments which preceded the engineers into Camp Willis, has been hastened merely to permit the release as soon as possible, of Captain L. M. Adams, regular army engineering officer. Captain Adams has been notified by the war department that his services with the army engineering corps of the border are required as soon as he can be spared here. He has therefore obtained permission to have the Ohio troops of his service milled into the federal service ahead of infantry regiments.

Lieutenant L. R. Dougherty, of Chicago, regular army artillery officer, will arrive at Camp Willis today to assist in mustering in the Ohio artillerymen. Word to this effect was received by Major Robert W. Mearns, chief mustering officer.

"When will pay day come?" is the question being raised by many of the troopers.

Guns Are Shelling German Defenses Along Western Front

AND BOMBARDMENT IS INTENSE

Long Range Guns Do Terrible Execution

BIG LOSSES ARE INFLICTED

Germans Lose Men, Guns and Territory and Anglo-French Offensive Compels Them to Withdraw Part of Their Forces From Verdun Front—Russians Capture Many Prisoners.

A German retreat all along the line of the front in Russia from Riga to Volhynia is reported today. The unofficial news to this effect comes from Petrograd through Rome. It declares that a triple defeat for the Germans in the Riga, Kolki and Baranovichi sectors caused them to begin a movement of their whole front westward.

Petrograd has recently announced successes in regions mentioned in the Rome advices. The last report from the vicinity of Kolki, in the crucial Volhynia sector, recorded the capture by the Russians of more than 7500 prisoners, half a dozen cannons and 25 machine guns. A great battle is raging along virtually the entire front of the British offensive in northern France.

At daybreak the British launched a new drive east of Albert. Important tactical successes were gained in several sectors, London announced.

The Germans simultaneously attacked in force near the river Ancre and north of Epercourt. They succeeded in temporary occupation of two or three hundred yards of ground lost in the earlier British drives. The chief advantages gained by the British were in the vicinity of Ovillers Contalmaison and La Boisselle. Near the last named place in an engagement last night a German trench more than a half mile in length was captured.

Meanwhile the French both north and south of the Somme in the field of the great allied offensive, are resting on the ground won in their notable advances of the last week. Efforts of the Germans to break the line now held by the French before Peronne, at one point within 1-2 miles of that city, have been futile, according to Paris.

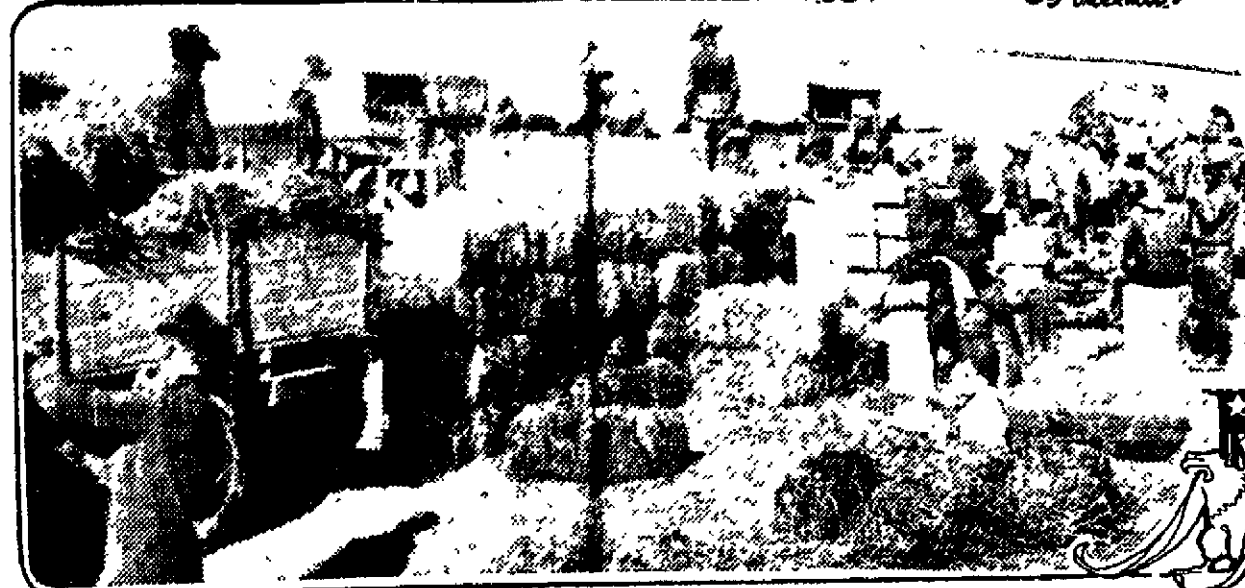

There is a comparative lull in the fighting around Verdun so far as the infantry is concerned, but artillery actions on the right bank of the Meuse, north of the citadel, are still violent.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, July 7, 11:55 a. m.—The second phase of the great battle on the western front has now begun. Efforts of the Germans to break up to new positions and is again battering the German defenses. The bombardment extends as far northward as Labassee and Armentieres and according to the latest unofficial advices is particularly intense. British long range guns are shelling the German positions and the roads in their rear and until the infantry again leaves the trenches it will be uncertain where the next attacks are to be launched.

In addition to inflicting losses on the Germans in men, guns and territory, the Anglo-French offensive is reported to have compelled them to withdraw some of their forces from the Verdun front. Consequently it is expected in London that the army which for nearly five months withstood the German attacks in that region will have some relief from continual fighting.

On the eastern front the Russians who now apparently have even a better supply of guns and ammunition than their adversaries, seem to pass from one phase to the next without intermission. General Letchitzky's army which conquered Bukovina and cut the railway between (Continued on Page 2, Col. 1.)

The arrival of mail in the American camps below the border is always a joyful time for the boys in khaki. Some of them have sweethearts who write with great regularity; all of them have relatives and friends. The lower photo shows the arrival of supplies for man and beast at one of the camps. Huge quantities of food-stuffs, ammunition and forage for the horses are daily received at the various camps on both sides of the border.

CARRIED FLAGS TO ROTUNDA OF STATE CAPITOL

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, July 7.—It was with deep emotion today that Governor Frank B. Willis carried the tattered flag of the Civil war regiment of his father, J. B. Willis of Delaware, from a store room to the state house rotunda where he placed it in one of the new glass cases provided for the 457 old war flags now in state custody. In the regiment, which was the Forty-eighth O. V. I., also served the governor's uncle, R. K. Willis, former state representative.

Mrs. Willis, wife of the governor, placed in position the flag of the Twentieth O. V. I. in which her father, John H. Dustin of Galena, served.

Many of the flags were carried, probably for the last time in many years, by sons of veterans who fought in the various civil war regiments. Ohio was represented in the war by 198 regiments of infantry, 26 batteries of field artillery, two batteries of heavy artillery, 13 squadrons of cavalry and several independent units. Flags of 55 of the regiments appear to have been permanently lost.

LAWYERS
OF STATE BAR ASSOCIATION WILL NOMINATE OFFICERS FROM THE FLOOR.

Progressives Win Fight Waged for Years on Nominating Committee—Enjoy Fine Banquet.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cedar Point, O., July 7.—Hereafter all nominations for officers of the State Bar association will be made from the floor, instead of by a nominating committee. Such was the decision of lawyers at the state convention at Cedar Point. The fight on the nominating committee has been waged for years by "progressives."

The association refused to accept the recommendation of the judicial advisory and legal reference committee to restrict the jurisdiction of the appellate courts, and change the statutes so that many cases in which appellate judges have final jurisdiction may go to the supreme court.

The association also went on record in favor of a law making it a penal offense for an employer to discharge an employee because the employee accepts jury service.

Senator Welsh of Montana addressed the convention last night on rural credits. Addresses were delivered today by Judge Edgar B. Kinkead of Columbus, on "reform of recent judicial reform." Memorials to the late Judge John N. Vandeman and George R. Young were passed. The annual banquet was held Thursday night. Frank C. Marvin of Cleveland was toastmaster. The convention is scheduled to end at noon.

DEFENSE RESTS IN THE ORPET MURDER TRIAL

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Waukegan, Ill., July 7.—The defense, after introducing documentary evidence bearing on the Wisconsin statute governing the sale of poisons rested today in the case of Will H. Orpet, the college student, charged with the murder of Marion Lambert.

Attorney David R. Joslyn, of the prosecution said he wanted Orpet recalled for further cross-examination with regard to Celestia Youker, the young woman to whom he was reportedly married.

James Welkerson and Ralph F. Potter, of the defense objected and Judge Donnelly ruled that the defendant could not be recalled.

The state may or may not put witnesses on the stand in rebuttal. This point was not definitely decided when court opened but it was said that the prosecution had one or two witnesses to put on the stand.

It was predicted today that the case would be in the hands of the jury early next week.

REFERENDUM

MAY FOLLOW THE GRANTING OF FRANCHISE TO INTERURBAN LINE AT ELYRIA.

Much Dissatisfaction Expressed on Account of Few Concessions Granted by Company.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Elyria, O., July 7.—Much dissatisfaction was expressed today and plans were made for a referendum election, following the granting last night by the city council of a new 25-year franchise to the Cleveland and Southwestern interurban electric line. The new grant provides half hour city service, in addition to the hourly interurban cars which at present comprise the entire service. Six tickets for 25 cents are also provided instead of straight five cent fare as at present. A quarter mile extension of lines towards the east side factory district will also be built, but this does not extend far enough to be of much use. Opponents of the franchise claim. The interurban officials refused to take their tracks over the New York Central railroad crossing to reach the factory section and the proposed extension goes only to the railroad crossing.

Note Handed To Mexican Ambassador

Government Officials at Washington Formally Accept Carranza's Proposals That Differences Between United States and De Facto Government of Mexico Be Settled by Direct Negotiations—Course Is Agreed Upon by the Nation's Chief Executive

DESIRE OF AN AMICABLE SETTLEMENT EXPRESSED

Would Have a Continuance of the Cordial Relations Exist Between the Two Countries and Desires An Immediate Solution of the Difficulties—Secretary Lansing States That the United States is Prepared to Immediately Exchange Views As to a Practical Plan to Remove and Prevent a Recurrence of the Misunderstandings Which Have Been the Source of Friction.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, July 7.—A note formally accepting General Carranza's proposals that differences between the United States and the de facto government of Mexico be settled by direct negotiations was handed today to Eliseo Arredondo, the Mexican ambassador designate. Secretary Lansing took a draft of the note to today's cabinet meeting and had it delivered promptly after the cabinet adjourned. The course to be pursued already had been agreed upon by President Wilson and his advisors.

The text of the note, addressed to Mr. Arredondo, follows: "Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of July 4, 1916 in which you transcribe a note addressed to me by the secretary of foreign relations of your government and to request that you will transmit to him the following reply:

"Mr. Secretary: "I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your courteous note transmitted to me by Senor Arredondo on the 4th instant in which you refer to my notes of June 20 and June 25th, and to assure you of the sincere gratification of my government at the frank statement of the difficulties which have unfortunately arisen in our relations along the international boundary, and the unreserved expression of the desire of your government to reach an adjustment of those difficulties on a broad and amicable basis. The same spirit of friendship and of solicitude for the continuance of cordial relations between our two countries inspires my government which equally desires an immediate solution of the matters of difference which have long vexed both governments.

"It is especially pleasing to my government that the de facto government of Mexico is disposed to give quick as well as practical consideration in a spirit of concord to the remedies which may be applied to the existing conditions. Recognizing the same desire the government of the United States is prepared immediately to exchange views as to a practical plan to remove the difficulties which have been the source of the controversy.

"Accept, Mr. Secretary, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration. I am sir, "Yours very sincerely, "Robert Lansing."

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, July 7.—The United States government was ready today to send to General Carranza a formal acceptance of his proposal that pending international difficulties be decided by direct diplomatic negotiations.

Secretary Lansing had completed the draft of a note conveying this assurance, for presentation to the cabinet today and early transmission to Mexico City.

The war department was busy assembling for the first time in history the United States regular army reserve of four thousand or five thousand enlisted men recently retired from active service but still subject to call in case of "war or emergency." Announcement was made last night that these men would be summoned to assist in organizing additional regular army units about to be formed under the new national defense act.

On the other hand, a material diminution of national guard forces for border duty was in prospect as a result of Secretary Baker's order authorizing discharge from service of those guardsmen with dependent families.

The series of conferences between Counselor Polk of the state department and Eliseo Arredondo, Mexican ambassador designate, for which the forthcoming note doubtless prepares the way, may extend beyond the question of protecting the border against future bandit raids and go into the sore need of the Carranza government for financial support. This possibility created considerable interest among administration officials and diplomats today. It was regarded as an indication that the United States wishes to assist the neighbor republic to bring order out of its internal turmoil. There was no thought, however, that the question of first importance in diplomatic discussions would be anything except protecting the border.

TOLEDO TAKES ACTION.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Toledo, July 7.—Toledo authorities decided Friday to place an embargo on children from New York. The action is taken to prevent introduction of infantile paralysis. Toledo is free from the disease at present. Police and health officers will be stationed at Union Depot and other stations. All infants entering the city from New York, will be sent back, unless they live here, and then will be put under 30-days quarantine.

Columbus, N. M., July 7.—Military authorities are investigating today the killing of Private C. A. Nasco, of Company E, Second battalion U. S. engineers at a camp building here. According to reports received at headquarters, Nasco was killed in a quarrel with J. Van Gordon, a comrade.

FRENCH SUCCESS IN PICARDY

Due to Machine Gun Fire From Trenches and Heavy Batteries

Paris, July 7.—The solidity of the French conquest in Picardy at last has been put to the test and military men here say it has come out of the ordeal with flying colors.

The Germans who managed to gather considerable forces partly, apparently from the British front, where the pressure was lessened during the day, and partly from depots, drove a series of violent attacks at two points, the first of these was between Hem and Maricourt on the Clary Road. The second was on the extreme right at Estres and Belloy, the object being to drive a wedge between the French center and right where the French line crosses the Somme river from Hem to Feuillicourt and between the extreme right and rest of the French front.

The success of these maneuvers would have forced the eventual retirement of the whole French line. The German reaction, however, came too late. The attacking wave was caught in a whirlwind of machine gun fire from the trenches and was shot to pieces by the "seventy-five" while the German supports following the reserves far in the rear were shattered by salvos from medium and heavy batteries.

The German infantry plodded forward again and again but no where French reports say, made any impression upon the French line. Rarely ever did they get two grips with the occupants of the trenches which accounts for the small number of prisoners taken.

The French remain two and a half miles from Peronne on the north side of the Somme and four miles from that city on the north side of the river and there are no formidable natural obstacles in the way of their occupation of the city. When the French commander judges that the time is ripe to do so.

British Successes Continue; Heavy Fighting in Progress in Sectors East of Albert

London, July 7, 2:46 p. m.—Capture by the British of a German trench on a front of 1,000 yards east of Laboissele, in the Somme region was announced officially today.

The British resumed the offensive on certain sectors east of Albert at dawn today. At the same time the Germans launched heavy attacks on the British trenches near Ancre. Violent fighting is now in progress.

In the vicinity of Ovillers and Contalmaison as well as near Laboissele the British made progress. In the region of Thiepval the Germans regained a section of lost ground.

A wireless dispatch from Rome says word has been received there from Petrograd that in consequence of their triple defeat in the sectors of Riga, Kolki and Baranovichi the Germans have begun to move their whole front toward the west.

The Russians have begun a tremendous offensive on the Riga front where their artillery is destroying the German trenches, says a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company from Vienna, via Copenhagen.

The bombardment, the dispatch adds, lasted 24 hours and the Germans were helpless before the Russian fire.

Men of Newark

ATTORNEY RAY MARTIN. MEMBER OF THE LAW FIRM OF Martin & Martin, Newark Trust building, and president of the Licking County Licensing Board, is one of Newark's most active young citizens. Born in Wayne township, August 27, 1883, Mr. Martin attended the rural grade schools in Muskingum county and later graduated from Zanesville High school. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Martin, highly respected residents of Madison township. Mr. Martin moved to Licking county in 1897 and lived with his parents in Madison township. He received a boxwell and teacher diploma but never taught school. In 1902 he began the study of law and was admitted to the bar in 1905. Later he was married to Miss Pearl May Roberts, and is the father of four fine healthy children. In July, 1906, Mr. Martin was selected as clerk of Deputy Supervisors Elections of Licking county. Later in the same year, he was appointed deputy county auditor by County Auditor J. N. Wright where he remained for four years. Then he took up the active practice of law, specializing in road district tax matters and administration of estates. For a time he was in partnership with Carl and Ralph Norpell. He is a trustee of the Municipal Library, and member of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce. He was appointed president of the Licking County Licensing Board by Governor Willis. Mr. Martin is a member of the St. Francis de Sales church and fraternally is a member of the Newark Council and Assembly No. 721 Knights of Columbus. "Treating people fairly and being square" is the way Mr. Martin sums up his success in the practice of law.

NO CASES HAVE BEEN REPORTED IN THIS CITY

Although there are 774 cases of infantile paralysis in the city of New York, with one child dying every hour from that cause, Health Officer W. H. Knauss states that there are no cases on record here and that there have not been in the last several years. The much dreaded malady that has been ravaging the city of New York has spread to Long Island, Connecticut, and New Jersey, but it is the opinion of Dr. Knauss that Newark is too far distant from the district suffering from the epidemic to worry over the spread of the disease from those sources.

examiners will probably get their money at the end of this month and pay will be made regularly each month thereafter during the continuance of the encampment here," said Major Mearns in reply to this question.

Meanwhile, the elaborate and complicated formalities of making the guardsmen regular army men continues. The Eighth regiment is still prevented from becoming a regular army unit by failure of the arrival of official word removing the disqualification of Company B, of Akron. Mustering officers also declared today they had received no advice regarding Companies B, D and H of the Fifth Regiment which were also disqualified some months ago by federal inspectors.

Today the mustering of the Fourth Regiment and the battalion of engineers was continued and that of the Second Regiment begun. Wearing on his shirt service badges showing he had served in the Spanish-American war, the Philippine insurrection and the Boxer uprising, G. A. Regel, a private of Company F, of the Eighth Regiment, of Akron, presented himself at mustering officers' headquarters today and said he had been rejected by medical examiners because he was four pounds underweight. Regel declared he had passed every requirement other than in weight, had had 17 years' army experience, fought as a member of the Twentieth Kansas Infantry under General Funston, and with Theodore Roosevelt on the left flank at San Juan Hill, had served in every climate and in four branches of the service, cavalry, infantry, hospital corps and artillery.

"They said they were afraid I wouldn't stand marching," said Regel. "I was one of the troopers who made the 196 mile coast to coast march from Manila in which we hiked 18 hours out of the 24."

Major Mearns expressed surprise that Regel had been rejected.

Sergeant Lemuel Brigham, of the hospital corps of the battalion of engineers, was today promoted to be first lieutenant of the medical corps of the Eighth Regiment. Sergeant James H. West, of the hospital corps of the Fifth Regiment, was made first lieutenant of the medical corps of the Eighth. Lieutenant Joseph T. Hall announced.

Delay on the part of the war department in accepting Company B, Eighth regiment, Akron, for service, may result in the first squadron of cavalry starting south before the Eighth does.

The plan is to send the Eighth to the border just as soon as B is mustered into the United States service, with El Paso as the probable destination. The transportation has been made out for the regiment, but has not been given to Colonel Edward Vollrath yet.

Major R. W. Mearns, senior federal mustering officer, has sent a number of telegrams urging the war department to act on the case of Company B, and calling attention to the receipt of a telegram by Colonel Vollrath two days ago, advising that the department had acted favorably upon the application for the mustering of the company.

Major Mearns will hurry the physical examination of the cavalry, starting on this Friday, so that he can report to the war department that this organization is "reasonably equipped" and ready to proceed to the border. Officers are expecting that the cavalry will be on its way south within two or three days at the farthest.

It has been semi-officially announced by the war department that all troops under arms will be moving south within a week or ten days.

Says Liquid Irondoc Most Rapid Strength Producer Known

NERVE SHATTERED PEOPLE; WORRIED AND PHYSICALLY UNFIT CAN REGAIN OLD TIME ENERGY AND AMBITION.

In these strenuous times men and women who would be successful must keep themselves physically fit.

In nearly every profession and trade the man with plenty of vigor, a keen mind, a clear brain and confidence, born of good red blood, is the man who is the envy of hundreds who lag behind and are in continual fear of the future.

Most people who lack the energy to go ahead and do things they know they ought to do and are capable of doing, probably need more iron in the blood. But iron alone as a strength giver is not looked on seriously by the great minds of the medical profession.

Iron in order to be of greatest benefit as an upbuilding preparation must be combined with other vitalizing agents that are known to create steady nerves, muscular strength and more brain power.

Liquid Irondoc is just such a preparation, and the reason it is put up in liquid form is because liquids are more easily assimilated and surely do get into the blood.

Good advice to every person who wants increased strength, a more vigorous body, nerves that never weaken and a mind so clear and energetic that difficult problems of life are easily disposed of, is to take a half wineglassful of Liquid Irondoc in either hot or cold water (hot preferred) twice a day, morning and night.

It's a very pleasant preparation that begins to add strength the first day you take it, and being made of simple yet harmless ingredients, it is inexpensive.

W. A. Erman is selling lots of Liquid Irondoc.

STATE SCHOOL FUNDS ARE LOW

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, July 7.—State treasurer R. W. Archer announced today that at the end of June there was $7,100,000 cash on hand in the state exchequer. This was distributed among the following funds: Revenue fund, $2,500,000; sinking fund, $3,000,000; highway, $3,000,000; special school, $117,870.20; common school, $3,000,000, and common school, $13,830.

This being at the end of the school year the common school fund, as in the university fund, would have been depleted except for the reason that a railroad company recently sold a small quantity of unclaimed freight, the proceeds of which goes to the support of schools.

CARS ARE ASSEMBLED IN NEWARK

By B. & O. Railway and Will be Sent to Columbus for Transporting Troops to the Border.

In anticipation of the early movement of troops from Columbus to the Mexican border, the Baltimore and Ohio railroad company has begun to assemble 105 coaches in this city, 63 of which are passenger coaches and the remainder baggage cars. An early order is expected to be issued to start transporting troops from Camp Willis and the B. & O. company has contracted to handle a large majority of the Ohio troops.

The cars are being parked on a side track near the B. & O. station and local officials stated today that the cars on hand now, would in all probability be sent to Columbus late this afternoon. The cars are being sent to Newark from Baltimore and other points east.

"Safety First" Pictures.

Superintendent Donald F. Stevens, of the local division of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad company is making preparation for several special trains to be run to Newark from Columbus, Wheeling and Sandusky on Monday July 10, for the benefit of B. & O. employees who will come to Newark to attend the exhibit of the "safety first" picture at the high school auditorium on that date.

"The House that Jack Built" is the title of one picture to be shown at the high school under the auspices of the general safety committee of the B. & O. company, and which deals with the many fatal accidents growing out of carelessness and negligence in observing safety first rules.

In addition to the picture, John T. Broderick, supervisor of special bureaus, E. R. Scoville, chief of the safety bureau of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad company, and Dr. E. M. Parlett, chief of the welfare bureau of the company, will be present and address the men along "safety first" lines. An orchestra has been engaged to furnish music throughout the showing of the picture and altogether an excellent program is in store for the men. The picture is not a dry lecture, but one embodied with all the thrills of railroad life and plenty of action.

Enjoy Dip in River.

The Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern railway provided a welcome surprise to the six train loads of Maryland militiamen who are on their way to the Mexican border, yesterday, when it had the trains sidetracked at North Bend to give the soldiers an opportunity to swim in the Ohio river at Cincinnati. Hundreds availed themselves of this delightful feature of the trip. The troop trains reached North Bend at noon time and the warriors postponed their luncheon until they had their dip in the river.

Five train loads of New Yorkers, engineer corps, passed through Cincinnati over the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern late last night, and Pennsylvania cavalrymen, four train loads, will go through Cincinnati tomorrow. This road is used as far as St. Louis, where the troops are transferred to a southern line. The total number of eastern militiamen that have been or are to be handled by the Baltimore and Ohio lines, according to W. B. Calloway, general passenger agent of the B. & O. S. W., is 14,617 and the mileage will be equivalent to one man traveling 13,534,049 miles.

Appointments Confirmed.

The appointment of C. C. Grimm, as general yard master of the Newark yards of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad and B. O. Whitteman, as terminal trainmaster at Benwood Junction, was officially confirmed today by Donald F. Stevens, superintendent of the Newark division. The appointments were made by C. H. Titus, local trainmaster of the company. Mr. Grimm resumed his duties as general yard master yesterday after an absence from the company's employ of a year, during which time he was engaged in taking care of private business. Mr. Whitteman, who came to Newark from Cleveland to succeed Mr. Grimm has taken up his new duties at Benwood. While a number of rumors are afloat as to other changes in the local division of the Newark division, no official action has been taken.

Official Family Enroute.

The official family of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad passed through this city last night on train No. 21 enroute from Cincinnati to Chicago on an inspection trip. McCarthy, superintendent of motive power.

The notes are for $650,000 each, the first one payable in five years and the others thereafter at intervals of one year each. For the first five years the notes will bear interest at the rate of 4 per cent, and thereafter at 5 per cent. The purchasers were represented by O. P. and N. J. Van Sweringen.

Take Strike Vote.

Order of Railroad Trainmen, Cincinnati Division, Chesapeake and Ohio, voted yesterday on the question of striking. Firemen voted several days ago, as each branch of the Brotherhoods have separate ballots. It is the general opinion that the majority voted to strike. Nothing will be given out, as the men say the results must come from the heads of the organization. Pennsylvania trainmen also voted on the strike proposition.

E. W. Scheer Appointed.

E. W. Scheer, superintendent of the Indiana division of the Baltimore and Ohio lines west, with headquarters at Seymour, Ind., will be promoted to general superintendent of the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern, at Cincinnati, on July 10, to succeed R. N. Begien, who becomes chief engineer.

SUDDEN DEATH OF PROMINENT RAILROAD MAN

(Associated Press Telegram)

East Orange, N. J., July 7.—Joseph Ramsey, Jr., prominent as a railroad builder and engineer, and former president of the Washash railroad, died suddenly and apoplexy at his home here today. Mr. Ramsey was born in Pittsburgh sixty-six years ago and began his railroad career as a level man for the Pennsylvania. He advanced in the engineering department rapidly and within a few years had built several small lines in the vicinity of his native city. These railroads were absorbed by the Pennsylvania and other big companies.

Mr. Ramsey in 1886 became chief engineer for the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railroad, and later general manager of the "Big Four." He filled a similar position for the St. Louis terminal, and was elected president of the Washash in 1901 serving until 1915. This position he left to build the Lorain, Ashland and Southern railroad of which he was president at the time of his death. He made his offices in New York.

BUILT INTERURBAN LINES.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Ellyria, O., July 7.—H. C. Johnson, attorney here for the Ramsey R. R. interests, received a telegram today from Orange, N. J., that Joseph Ramsey, Jr., builder of the Lorain, Ashland and Southern railroad operating in this county, had died early today at his home in Orange. The Lorain, Ashland and Southern road was recently sold to the Pennsylvania lines.

Granville

[Special to The Advocate]

Granville, O., July 7.—Council met in adjourned session, Wednesday evening, July 5, with all the members present and Mayor C. H. Coons in the chair. Routine business engaged attention and nothing of unusual interest to the public was brought up. The street sprinkling which had met with "technicalities" was adjusted in a satisfactory manner, as it was adjudged that the present condition of the streets in the village, with the attending discomfort of dust etc., must be regarded as "an emergency," and the water for said sprinkling must be furnished free so long as the condition prevails. The board of estimate composed of Burton Case, A. P. Nichol, and L. A. Austin, made a report on sprinkling Elm street from Main to Cherry, and Cherry to Maple which was accepted and placed on file. Dr. L. E. Davis, treasurer, reported there have been many payments of sewer assessments, and it is hoped that the majority of property owners may see their way clear to making cash payments of their assessments.

The women of the Travelers' Club have planned to give the annual picnic supper on the lawn of Mrs. C. B. Slack's home in Cedar street, Wednesday afternoon, July 12, beginning at 4 o'clock. Senior Jose Asensio, instructor of Spanish at West Point Military academy, has accepted the invitation to be a guest of the club on this occasion and to speak informally of his travels in South America the country which has been selected as the scene of activity for the ensuing year in the club. Each member of the club will have the privilege of inviting her husband or other guest and the occasion promises to be one of unusual enjoyment.

Mrs. C. W. Chamberlain accompanied by her daughter Elizabeth, left yesterday for Mansfield where she will stay the guest for a few days at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cotter, formerly Elsie Husted.

Miss Genevieve Meade of Cincinnati a former student in Denison and a member of the Kappa Pi sorority is the guest of Granville friends for a few days.

Mrs. Ella P. Lepler of Dayton arrived in Granville yesterday for a fortnight's visit at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Ferguson in South Mulberry street.

Mrs. Anna Pond of Evanston, Ill., for many years a resident of Granville, left last evening for her home. She says that there never can be another place so dear to her as Granville, and the friends here. Mrs. Pond always was identified with the best interests of the place both in the church and in society, and her absence is felt by her large circle of personal friends.

The family of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Dorsey were greatly alarmed Tuesday over the sudden serious illness of little Herbert Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. H. G. Dorsey, now on a visit to the old home in Broadway. This morning, however, finds the bright little fellow on the road to speedy recovery, and it is hoped he will have no relapse.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley, well known artists of Columbus, are spending a fortnight in Granville, with headquarters at Mrs. Mitchell's in East Broadway. Rev. and Mrs. T. G. Field and their niece, Miss Judith Nichol, are making preparations to leave Granville next week for the remainder of the vacation. They expect to visit friends and relatives in Massachusetts and Connecticut before their return.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Morrow are in New York City for a short time and expect to make their home in Hartford, Conn.

Mr. Kenneth Ullman is comfortably located in his new home in Memphis, Tenn., his office address being No. 245 East Monroe avenue. He reports that the climate seems no hotter than in Ohio, and that the city has a good deal of northern enterprise combined with its southern charm.

Mrs. W. A. Chamberlain and her daughter Miss Grace, delightfully entertained at luncheon Thursday at their home in Birch street in honor of Miss Mabel Heitrik and her house guest, Miss Helen Swope, of Denning, N. M.

Mrs. Jane Buckland is in Cleveland visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. E. Gunther.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Morrow, who have been visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Morrow, in South Prospect street, have departed for Wheeling, W. Va., which is to be their future home.

Mrs. Clyde Quinns of Dayton is the guest of her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mitchell in Broadway.

One of the fine new cars to be seen on Granville boulevards is the new Overland recently purchased by Mr. David R. Owen ofburgh street. The King's Daughters are gathering up old magazines today.

The annual basket Monday of the Circle is to be held on Monday afternoon, July 10th, at the home of Mrs. Harry Thomas in Centerville street, at which time a full attendance is expected.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Howe are enjoying a visit from two of their daughters, Miss Ella Howe of Columbus, and Miss Bess Howe, who has spent the past two years in Los Angeles, Cal.

At the chapel in Recital Hall Thursday morning the students of the Denison University Summer school were favored with an excellent address by Prof. Meade, head of the educational department of Ohio Wesleyan University.

Reducing Summer Stock.

Every merchant confronts in July the problem whether he will mark down his stock, or take chances on carrying it over another year. No store can get along without buying more goods than it can sell at regular prices. It must expect to have special sales or carry things over.

A good sale has value apart from the immediate proceeds of it. The people who came for a specially advertised bargain, who bought and saw the value they were getting, are a good asset to have. They will come again next time any article they want is advertised, and will also make visits at other times.

The merchant can not well wait until late season before starting to work off his summer stock. A moderate reduction in July will move a lot of goods that could only be carried out on a big cut later on.

A special sale simply has to be advertised liberally in order to draw the crowd. A store can attract attention by regular use of a small space, and it will create its own regular customers without a big splurge if the advertising is done regularly. But to get the crowd and move a lot of goods, the merchant must get to blow in a little. Otherwise it will seem to the public as if the thing was not genuine.

People have become used nowadays to the big advertisements in the large city papers of special sales. They look to the home merchants to do the same thing.

There is a psychology of the crowd. A well filled store is conducive to buying. If the aisle are filled, people believe that the sale is a real thing, and the bargains genuine, their over-caution disappears, and they buy what they want instead of waiting. No other way exists of starting the crowd but by a good big newspaper advertisement. It costs some money, and it brings some returns. It starts a business on a new level of prosperity.

Calling a Minister.

A man who recently served on a committee for selecting a minister for a certain church, was telling his experience the other day. He had recently been waylaid by a prosperous business man, a large contributor to the society, who said it was absolutely necessary that the new minister should use tobacco. This would help him get next to the men and draw them into the social rooms. The committee member had no special feeling against tobacco. But he was surprised to learn that use of it was now considered an essential qualification for a minister.

The next day his wife was told by a spirituelle Sunday school teacher, that the next pastor must have a more devotional spirit or she would Candidate.

BUCHANAN.

THE election of 1856 was the first contest between the two parties as they exist today. Buchanan, Democrat, of Pennsylvania, opposed John C. Fremont, Republican, of New York. The Republican party had just been created. Slavery was the principal issue, and signs of the approaching catastrophe were plainly visible. Buchanan was elected, receiving a popular vote of 1,838,169 to 1,341,264 for his opponent. Millard Fillmore of New York, who was the candidate of the American party, received $74,538 votes. J. C. Breckinridge, Democrat, of Kentucky, was chosen vice president.

English Channel Tunnel.

(Boston Herald.)

More than 40 years have passed since the British Foreign Office expressly approved the idea of constructing a tunnel under the Channel for railway communication between England and France. But less than 40 years later, when the question was submitted to a Parliamentary committee, the military authorities took the negative side on strategic grounds, and the consequence was an unfavorable report by the committee. Many bills for the building of a Channel tunnel were subsequently introduced, only to be rejected at the instance of the Government of the day. The last occasion was in 1907, after an inquiry by the committee of Imperial Defense.

But in August, 1913, Mr. Asquith promised a fresh investigation. In the fire of the present war England and France have been so welded that their parting seems impossible. The proposed tunnel would be but an additional tie of friendship and guarantee of good will. Two railway companies, the France Great Northern and the English Southeastern, stand ready to build the tunnel, each furnishing one half of the total cost, which is estimated at $30,000,000. Their engineers have all planned to run through the chalk ridge from Dover to Cape Griz Nez, a distance of 21 miles, emerging on the French side between Sangatte and Wissant, some 12 miles south of Calais, and connecting with the Calais Amiens line to Paris. Whenever parliament gives the word the work will be quickly done.

Porto Rico's Progress.

(New York Evening Post.)

Those who think of our insular possessions as backward would do well to study the course of legislation in Porto Rico. In its system of juvenile courts for the care of destitute children, in its government assistance to laborers wishing farms of their own, in its $4,000,000 government irrigation system and government extermination of mosquitoes, in its protection of a crowded population against usury, it could offer lessons to many states. The advanced character of San Juan statesmanship is again attested by the legislative session just closed. The government was authorized to issue bonds for an insular bank, to serve as head of a farming system. A workmen's compensation law was passed. $2,000,000 was voted to complete the excellent road system, and—as half our states and cities might take note—all government supplies were standardized, and their purchase vested in a single office. The assembly even attempted the reform of the general property tax, which has been as iniquitous in Porto Rico as in the United States. To Governor Yager and other American officers a good deal of the credit for this legislation is due; but it also evinces a creditable progressiveness on the part of the native lawmakers.

Voting By Mail.

(Columbus Dispatch.)

The desirability of a system of voting by mail appears in the fact that, if the troops are sent to the border, many of them will be deprived of their right to vote at the November election. In a very few of the states such voting has been legalized, and the guardsmen will vote wherever they are; but in other states, unless the legislatures act in the meantime, the vote will be short by the number of troops sent.

There is now no serious objection to voting by mail, for it has been shown that the system is safe. Sentiment for it has grown with the discussion, and for the most part the introduction of the system is simply a matter of neglect. The necessary legislation has not been passed. That is all.

Uncle Joe Cannon is almost as warlike as Mr. Hearst. He ought to raise a regiment at least.—Springfield Republican.

Spirit of the Press

Remember Both?
Twice now in a few months, the power of the rough word to get results where one of gentleness failed, has been demonstrated. It pays to be firm for the right.—Columbus Dispatch.

The Marines.
Somehow the marines appear to be going ahead with the fighting in Santo Domingo wholly unhampered by ultimatums, negotiations, withdrawals and such.—Cleveland Leader.

No Dyestuffs Issue Now.
There can scarcely be a dyestuffs issue in this campaign. When in power the Republicans themselves did not protect the industry sufficiently to enable it to get well established, and that policy was dictated by the big textile manufacturers who wanted to get the German dyes as cheaply as possible. But the Democrats are now raising the tariff in order to protect the American dyestuffs industry when peace comes. Shall we, therefore, some time see a movement for free trade in these coloring materials emanating from the treasurers' offices of New England mills and being promoted by the Massachusetts and Rhode Island Senators?—Springfield Republican.

Carranza's Change of Front.
The temper of the Carranza note to the Washington Government is so far at variance with the spirit of prior outgivings from that quarter as to cause wonder that it could come from the same person. It is not only pacific, it is almost beseechingly pacific.—New York World.

Free Seed Distribution.
The Senate has voted to strike from the Agricultural Appropriation bill the provision for the free distribution of seeds; but rejoicing over this step toward the abolition of petty graft would be premature. We will believe in the termination of the graft game when both houses have passed and the President has signed a bill effecting it. About the same time we may expect the enactment of a measure to put an end to the Congressional mileage scandal, by which members of both houses lavishly reimburse themselves for the expense of traveling to and from the capital on a scale of almost 10 to 1 as compared with their actual outlay. Congressional seeds and Congressional mileage are twin fruits of the flourishing Grab-Apple tree, which will only cease bearing with the arrival of the millennium.—Philadelphia Record.

Silver's Boom.
The price of silver is higher now than at any time since 1893. By the mere processes of supply and demand it has come to bear a ratio of 27 to 1 to gold. The war caused the hoarding of gold, and silver therefore has been in great demand for coinage purposes among the belligerent nations. Meanwhile, the output in Mexico has decreased. Silver has benefited more by war than it ever did by "Coin's" specious arguments or by Mr. Bryan's perferend eloquence. Only twenty years have passed since the nation was in an uproar over the cause of silver. We passed through a period of evasion before the issue was joined in 1896, and then one of the most exciting and picturesque Presidential campaigns of our history occurred. Today no man raises his voice in behalf of silver. Unhonored and unused, it nevertheless is doing well, thank you.—Cincinnati Times-Star.

That the Yellowstone region contains the most wonderful geysers in the world? The best known group, however, is in Iceland, where the two largest ones are known as the Great Geyser and the Strokr, which are a little more than a hundred yards apart. The latter is an irregular aperture of from 6 to 8 feet in diameter, down which one may safely look to see the water seething in a narrow passage 20 feet below. The Great Geyser is on the summit of an elevation about 15 feet high and is a circular pool of hot water 72 feet in diameter and about four feet deep. From the center descends a pit eight feet wide and eighty-three feet deep from which a stream of hot water is continually ascending. Once a day there is a terrible paroxysm lasting for about a quarter of an hour during which the water is thrown from 60 to 80 feet high mingled with such volumes of steam as to obscure the country for half a mile around.

Mr. Spinks was weak, nervous and dizzy. Others of his fellow-sufferers have had digestion, poor appetite, a fluttering heart, trembling, sick and nervous headaches, bowel troubles and other forms of nervous debility. Nerv-Worth has overcome these in thousands of cases. If it fails in the reader's case he gets his dollar back at the T. J. Evans' Drug Store, Warden Block.

PRESIDENTIAL POINTERS

At the fifth presidential election, 1804, the Constitution having been amended, the electors voted for president and vice president instead of two candidates for president as before. The result was as follows: For president, Thomas Jefferson 182, Charles C. Pinckney 14. For vice president, George Clinton 162, Rufus King 14.

Seventeen states took part in the election and 176 electoral votes were cast. Jefferson and King were inaugurated president and vice president in Washington, March 4, 1805.

NOTES FROM CAMP WILLIS AT COLUMBUS

Columbus, O., July 7.—“We have heard them singing. What is your excuse for not singing?” is one of the many eye-catching signs displayed in front of recruiting stations which have sprung up mushroom-like throughout the business section of the city since the order to prepare to mobilize was issued two weeks ago.

Epithets in which they are referred to as “tin soldiers” or “tin Willie” are heard much less frequently by enlisted men of the Ohio National Guard than was the case two years ago, according to guard officers. They believe the reputations demanded by the men on numerous occasions in which fists were brought into play by the guardsmen, have had their effect.

“You do not have to take such cuts,” in substance is the advice given by the men by commanders, and, as a result, the taunts are but seldom heard, it is said.

“The boys in Camp Willis are enjoying banquets in comparison to the rations on which we subsisted for many weeks in Cuba,” declared Brig. Gen. W. V. McMaken, of Toledo, commandant of Camp Willis, in reference to the food issued to the men at the big mobilization camp. “Without a doubt, the food is the best I have ever seen issued to Ohio troops,” he declared.

Even store windows in Columbus have assumed a timely war time aspect during the past two weeks. Advertising card writers and window dressers, keen to utilize the spirit of the country, have adopted military terms or references to Mexico or intermingled with their displays of merchandise, articles or ordnance or army equipment which lend attraction. One card exhibited in a display of shirts bears the words, “You don’t have to go to Mexico to learn how cool you can be—wear one of these.”

Railroads passing through Columbus have put into effect the censorship demanded by war department officials regarding the movement of troop trains toward the Mexican border. Inquiries at railroad offices here as to when certain trains bearing troops will arrive, at just what point they will be at a given time are accorded a stereotyped “We do not know” by employees.

This action, it has been explained by government officials, was taken to prevent the possible wrecking of the trains bearing soldiers.

“Wanted—A Mascot, preferably a goat-nanny or billy.”

A sign bearing this inscription hung in front of the headquarters tent of the Eighth regiment, Sunday. The headquarters company of the regiment came to camp without a mascot and its lack of such a companion was immediately felt. For the majority of guard units in the camp have dogs or even foxes for pets. “We’re missing the boys of the company were desirous of being original, no goats having at that time been brought into camp as mascots.

Lieut. John S. Bailey has brought into the mobilization camp the first bootjack which has yet appeared. While in charge of the men who mowed the grass from the camp site, the lieutenant found his feet became wet and it was with difficulty he removed his boots each evening. An old-fashioned boot-jack, he found, lent the desired assistance, and now about officers’ headquarters, his boot-jack is in great demand when time for “taps” arrives.

Instances of peace-disturbance or outburst on the part of enlisted men are to be given summary attention by guard officers. It has been announced at camp headquarters. A few days’ work about camp, assignment to picket duty or a cut of rations will be the lot of such violators, it has been announced.

So far, however, the men have been very well behaved, according to officers, and but a few have had to be reprimanded.

Columbus railroad officials declare passenger equipment which has been placed at the disposal of the government for the rushing of national guardmen to the Mexican border has seriously handicapped the companies’ handling of regular passenger traffic.

“We believe, though, that the public, understanding the cause will be patient, knowing the hindrance will be only temporary,” said one railroad man.

Harry R. Byrne, of Columbus, endorsed by Mayor George J. Korb, Judge Samuel L. Black and former Attorney General T. S. Hogan as a “natural born soldier,” is making an attempt to be assigned as second lieutenant on the staff of a regular army officer for service in the event of war with Mexico.

Senator Atlee Pomeroy is said to be negotiating with the departmental officials at Washington in Byrne’s behalf.

Since they are not provided for in the new federal army bill, Ohio National guard officers are wondering just what is to become of the headquarters companies, bands and mounted scouts of several of the Ohio regiments. Federal army officers, because of the absence of adequate provision by the new law, can not muster men of these commands into the federal service and accordingly guard officers are awaiting with considerable interest the disposition of the matter made by officials at Washington.

Here’s what you would do in a day were you an enlisted man encamped with the militiamen at Camp Willis. The routine, followed daily by the men, was drafted by the camp commandant, Brig. Gen. William V. McMaken, of Toledo:

If Too Fat Get More Fresh Air

BE MODERATE IN YOUR DIET
AND REDUCE YOUR WEIGHT WITH OIL OF KOREIN.

Lack of fresh air, it is said, weakens the oxygen-carrying power of the blood, the liver becomes sluggish, fat accumulates and the action of many of the vital organs are hindered thereby. The heart action becomes weak, work is an effort, and the beauty of the figure is destroyed. Fat put on by indoor life is unhealthy and if nature is not assisted in throwing it off by increasing the oxygen-carrying power of the blood, a serious case of obesity may result.

When you feel that you are getting too stout, take the matter in hand at once. Don’t wait until your figure has become a joke and your health ruined through carrying around a burden of unsightly and unhealthy fat.

Spend as much time as you possibly can in the open air; breathe deeply, and get from W. A. Erman, Evans Drug Store or any druggist a box of oil of korein capsules; take one after each meal and one before retiring at night.

Weigh yourself every few days and keep up the treatment until you are down to normal. Oil of korein is absolutely harmless, is pleasant to take, helps the digestion and even a few days’ treatment has been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight.

“Peace be Still,” Duet.
“Bread of Life,” Quartette.
“Ready to Serve,” Chorus.
Offertory: “What a Friend We Have in Jesus,” Duet.

GEORGE CLARK AND “GAUDAUR” READY FOR SPEEDWAY AGAIN

Recovers From Severe Form of Rheumatism By Var-ne-sis and Will Be Seen at Many Race
Tracks This Season

GEORGE CLARK AND HIS FAMOUS STALLION “GAUDAUR”

owns J. E. C. with a record of 2:12 1-4.

Mr. Clark was compelled to give up driving on account of rheumatism, and it will be a surprise to many to know that he has fully recovered.

He said: “I believe I know what it is to suffer from rheumatism. I was so bad that for weeks I was unable to turn in bed and had to have someone assist me to dress. It was impossible to get my hands to my head and particularly painful in the morning.

“There was at first a slight numbness of my fingers and then the pain extended to my arms, shoulders and back. It continued to grow worse and finally involved my legs. My hands were weak and I was unable to lift even small objects, as the strength seemed to have left me entirely.

“Reading so much about Var-ne-sis and what it had done for others, I decided to try it, with the result that gradually the pain left me, my strength returned and today I consider myself a well man.

“I have recommended Var-ne-sis to a number of friends suffering from preparation composed of herbs, roots and barks, and does not contain any harmful drugs. It has been unusually successful in the treatment of chronic rheumatic conditions of all kinds and is rapidly becoming known as the World’s remedy for Rheumatism. W. A. Varney, discoverer, said:

I am continually producing living evidence to prove that rheumatism of the joints is curable. No rheumatic can afford to ignore this mass of evidence.

I know what Var-ne-sis has accomplished where the joints were swollen from a chalky deposit—I know what Var-ne-sis has accomplished for dry joints so that they creaked when going up or down stairs. I know what Var-ne-sis has accomplished for actual cripples that were confined to wheel chairs. It has made every one of these people well and ought to do the same for you.

No other preparation produces such evidence as Var-ne-sis. Why? Send to W. A. Varney, Lynn, Mass., for “Story of Var-ne-sis”—its free.

WOMAN HAD NERVOUS TROUBLE

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her.

West Danby, N. Y.—“I have had nervous trouble all my life until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for nerves and for female troubles and it straightened me out in good shape. I work nearly all the time, as we live on a farm and I have four girls. I do all my sewing and other work with their help, so it shows that I stand it real well. I took the Compound when my ten year old daughter came and it helped me a lot. I have also had my oldest girl take it and it did her lots of good. I keep it in the house all the time and recommend it.”—Mrs. DEWITT SINCEBAUGH, West Danby, N. Y.

Sleeplessness, nervousness, irritability, backache, headaches, dragging sensations, all point to female derangements which may be overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from native roots and herbs, has for forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

Women everywhere bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtues of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

PROGRAM
OF THE NATIONAL PROHIBITION
CONVENTION TO BE HELD AT ST. PAUL, MINN.

Will be Called by Chairman Virgil Hinchshaw July 19—Chorus of 700 Voices for Mass Meeting.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Chicago, July 7.—The formal program for the Prohibition National convention at St. Paul, Minn., July 19-21, was issued today at the headquarters of the National committee here. A get-together conference will be held on the 18th with a view to bringing together the moral reform forces of the nation in a new political alignment, the program for which is not yet fully outlined. Members of the committee indicated that the plans for this conference are in the hands of nationally known reformers who have not been previously allied with the Prohibition Party and who favor the amalgamation of the Prohibition Party with other reform elements under a new name.

The convention proper will be called to order by National Chairman Virgil G. Hinchshaw at 10 a. m. Wednesday, July 19. Following the invocation, the routine business of the convention will begin with the reading of the official call by the secretary of the National committee, Mrs. Frances E. Beauchamp of Kentucky. Convention committees will then be elected by the state delegations, after which the temporary chairman, Daniel A. Poling of Boston, will be introduced and deliver the keynote address. This will be followed by addresses of welcome by Mayor V. G. Irvy of St. Paul, and W. G. Calderwood, who will speak for the Prohibitionists of the State. The response will be by F. W. Emerson of California, member of the National executive committee.

The afternoon session will be given over to committee reports and miscellaneous business and the Ramsey County W. C. T. U. will tender a reception to the women delegates and visitors in the Masonic Temple. There will be a public mass meeting in the convention auditorium in the evening. After a half hour of music by a chorus of 700 voices lead by Prof. Pease, James H. Woertendyke of California, will call the meeting to order and preside during the introduction of eight of the leading young men of the party who are state chairmen or field workers and who will each give a five minute address. Included in the list is Lawrence P. McGahan, the Chicago Edison keeper's son who will tell of his 12,000 mile hike to advertise the convention. Former Governor Sulzer of New York will deliver the address of the evening.

CHILDREN WE WORRY ABOUT

Close confinement in school during the past winter, overtaken perhaps, an attack of the grip or tonsillitis, some of these things are doubtless responsible for the condition of the child who shows a decline in health now.

What are the symptoms? Pallor and languor, a tickle appetite, dark rings under the eyes, bronchial colds. Very often the best efforts of the family physician fail in such cases and the condition of the child causes the most intense anxiety. Coughs, colds, so often prescribed, generally fails because the weak stomach is unable to digest fats.

Try this treatment. Before breakfast each morning give the child the juice of half an orange. After the noon meal give one of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Keep this up for a few days and then give one of the pills after the evening meal also. Watch the child before beginning the treatment and again after two weeks. An increase in weight of from two to five pounds will show you that you are on the right track at last. Care is necessary in the diet of the patient and it will be well to send to Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., for a diet book and the pamphlet, "Building Up the Blood." Both are free. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

FORECAST OF FARM CROPS

Washington, July 7.—Forecasts of final production of the country's principal farm crops this year were announced today by the Department of Agriculture's Bureau of crop estimates basing its calculation upon the condition of crops on July 1. Indications are that the wheat crop this year will be several million bushels less than it was last year for the first time in the history of the nation the entire year's wheat output exceeded the billion bushel mark. Some other crops also will be smaller than they were last year. That is due principally to a reduction in acreage. Winter wheat shows a decrease of 18.6 per cent in acreage, spring wheat, a reduction of 8.2 per cent; oats, less than one per cent decrease; barley, an increase of 4.9 per cent, and rye, a decrease of 4.4 per cent.

FRECKLE-FACE

Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots. How to Remove Easily.

"Here's a chance, Miss Freckle-face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable dealer that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of othine—double strength—from any druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine as this is the prescription sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

25 Years Ago

(From Advocate, July 7, 1891.)

The dance given by the machinists of this city last evening was a success from every point of view. The committee were Messrs. J. E. Fisher, C. T. Wilson, A. F. Cross, James Adams and J. E. Cook.

A novel sight was witnessed today at the depot when a number of soldiers from the barracks at Columbus enroute for the frontier, took their noonday meal.

The World War a Year Ago Today—July 7.

The Italian cruiser Ansaldo sunk by an Austrian submarine in the upper Adriatic.

French casualties up to May 31 estimated by the French Relief society to be 400,000 killed, 700,000 wounded and 300,000 prisoners and missing. (The proportion of killed to wounded is usually that of one to three, but in fierce combat it may rise as high as one to two or even less, so the heavy mortality of this estimate is possible.)

An explosion, followed by fire, occurred on the Minnehaha, three days out from New York and loaded with munitions for the British army. The fire was brought under control, and the ship headed for Halifax.

Official figures showed that exports of arms and munitions from the United States during the first ten months of the war (to May 31) totaled $37,000,000, three times the normal shipment. (The increased shipments were chiefly to the entente powers in Europe.)

FRICITION

BETWEEN OFFICIALS OF GER-MAN CITIES AND CENTRAL PURCHASING BUREAU

Over Inability of Former to Secure Provisions, Claiming That
There is a Discrimination.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
The Hague, July 7, via London,
10:40 a. m.—Information reaches the Hague that for several weeks
there has been continuous friction between the authorities of various large German cities and the central purchasing bureau. The municipalities claim the right to buy their own food and household articles without asking permission of the central bureau.

There was an outburst last week in the Janover city council, several members of which accused the central bureau of hoarding the city, which was unable to procure butter, sausage and hams, notwithstanding the fact that some places in the vicinity were sufficiently supplied. It was argued that it was physically impossible for one bureau to control
all municipalities.

Cologne, Dresden, Chemnitz and other cities already are purchasing supplies independently, having representatives in Holland for that purpose. As potatoes are scarce in Germany, while the supply of rye is sufficient, Adolph von Batocki, head of the food regulation board has decided it will not be necessary to mix potatoe meal in war bread.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat If You Feel Backache or Bladder Troubles You—Salts
Is Fine for Kidneys.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system.
Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush out the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

"Ah, life is a grindstone," sighed
the Wise Guy. "Yes, it sharpens either our wits or our noses," added
the Simple Mug.

Some fellows are never satisfied to quench a thirst for knowledge unless they have a free lunch thrown in.

CONTEST

EXCITING OVER THE CHOOSING
OF PRESIDENT FOR B. Y.
P. U. OF AMERICA.

Much Opposition Develops to Naming
a Pastor—President—Layman
May be Favored for Office.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Chicago, July 7.—The contest of the presidency of the Baptist Young People's Union of America grew warmer when the 25th annual international convention opened for the morning session at the Coliseum here today. The opposition to a pastor president became more pronounced as the advocates of the Layman Plan in the nominating committee declared a growing conviction that the highest denominational efficiency would be induced only under the executive guidance of the laity.

Opposition to the program of the nominating committee clearly was apparent. It is understood to have been fostered by the board of managers, which takes the position that since the pastor is the spiritual director of the congregations he also should be the spiritual head of the Young People's Union with executive authority. Before nominations were called for it appeared probable that the committee's report would favor some layman for the office of president.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

Look years younger! Use the old-time Sage Tea and Sulphur and nobody will know.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost over night if you'll get a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old, famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray,
or whose faded hair has a surprise awaiting them, because after one of two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur tonight and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

This preparation is a toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Suffered Great Pain!

Letter Tells of Long Looked-for Prescription.

Dear Mr. Editor—I am making a personal appeal to your readers who are bothered with kidney and bladder trouble and rheumatism, to give up the use of harsh salts, or alkaline remedies, and take in their place take a short treatment of "Anuric Tablets." I was convinced of its wonderful virtues as I was. I suffered great pain, had a great deal of irritation, water became foul. I tried everything advised with no results. I sent for a box of "Anuric Tablets" and soon discovered that they brought relief. I have used them since, and now the water is natural, my health good, and appetite splendid. Some of the doctors pronounced my trouble enlarged prostate. Now I have no more trouble and I most assuredly feel that this latest discovery of Dr. Pierce's is the best remedy for kidney and bladder troubles that I know of. If I can induce anyone to give it a trial, I feel that he will thank me for calling attention to this great boon that relieves this seemingly worst of all troubles that human flesh can fall heir to.

(Signed) H. H. FLEMING.

NOTE: Up to this time, "Anuric" has not been on sale to the public, but by the persuasion of many patients and the increased demand for this wonderful healing tablet, Doctor Pierce has finally decided to put it into the drug stores of this country within immediate reach of all sufferers.

Simply ask for Doctor Pierce's Anuric Tablets. There can be no imitation. Every package of "Anuric" is sure to be proven by you will find the signature on the package just as you do on Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the ever famous friend to ailing women, and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, proven by years to be the greatest general tonic and restorative for any one. At any rate don't give up hope of being cured of your malady until you have done up of Anuric Tablets. I am sure it will make you feel like a different person.

Reason—Please don't let this letter in your correspondence go to your pocket.

Hairs Will Vanish After This Treatment

(Toilet Help.)
You can keep your skin free from hair or furs by the occasional use of plain delatone and in using it you need have no fear of marbling or injuring the skin. A thick paste is made by mixing some of the powdered delatone with water. Then spread on the hairs and after 3 or 5 minutes rub off, wash the skin and all traces of hair have vanished. Be careful, however, to get real delatone.

Our Boys and Girls

Teething is not a sickness. Although nearly all babies are more fussy when teething, healthy babies should have no serious trouble cutting their teeth. Sickness in teething time most often comes from bad food, not from the teeth.

A child may more easily get sick when the teeth are coming. The usual cause of sickness at this time is a dirty bottle, a cold or milk that has not been kept cold and has become sour, or some other such reason. Teething begins at about six to eight months, and the first tooth may appear in a healthy baby any time after this. Occasionally a tooth is cut earlier. The lower middle teeth usually come first. Babies a year old usually have from six to eight teeth. Soothing syrups or paregoric will not help the baby to cut teeth and are dangerous to use. See that a baby or young child has the required amount of sleep. A very young baby should sleep 15 to 20 hours. At one year 14 hours. At two years, 12 hours. Day-time naps should be continued as long as possible. The sleeping room should be darkened and well ventilated, the windows open at the top and bottom. If the baby cries when he should be asleep, he is probably sick. Do not train the baby to be carried if he cries. Train him to go to sleep in the dark.

Milady's Boudoir

Making Cold Cream at Home.
In compounding cold creams at home it is essential that you understand how to mix the different ingredients or they will be ruined. Use a china or glass bowl for mixing and when fats are to be melted place them in a small receptacle which should be immersed in a larger vessel filled with boiling water. The fats are removed as soon as they have melted; if allowed to become hot they will never congeal.

When oil is to be added you may find it necessary to return the fats to the water, if the cold liquid hardens them. The secret of successful cold cream lies in keeping the congealing process delayed until all ingredients are mixed. To stir the creams use a bone or wooden spoon.

When finished pack in glass or china jar.

This nourishing cream is fine: Spermaceti, 6 drams; oil of sweet almonds, 4 ounces; white wax, 6 drams; borax 2 drams; glycerine, 1 1/2 ounces; orange flower water, 2 ounces; oil of neroli, 15 drops; oil of bigarade (orange skin) 15 drops; oil of pimento, 15 drops. Melt the first three ingredients, add the glycerine to the orange flower water and dissolve the borax in the mixture, then pour slowly into the blended fats, stirring constantly. Beat the mixture until it congeals and pack in jars.

When the skin is inclined to wrinkle, make an astringent lotion of: Almond milk, 2 ounces; alum (powder), 60 grains. Apply this to the skin with a piece of absorbent cotton before retiring. Toilet lotions based on benzoin are favorites with many women, for they have wonderful astringent and bleaching qualities. The simple tincture of benzoin should be purchased and to make a lotion for the face and hands use: simple tincture of benzoin, 2 ounces; glycerine, 2 ounces.

Everyday Etiquette

"Will you please tell me what part I should take when my daughter, who is 17, entertains a party of boys and girls during the evening. Should I remain in the parlor for a short time or not?" asked a fond mother.

You should welcome your daughter's guests, but isn't necessary that you should spend the entire evening with them. You might go in now and then during the evening with them, and you should be on hand when they say good night," said her social mother.

CAREFULNESS IN QUOTING REDUCTIONS

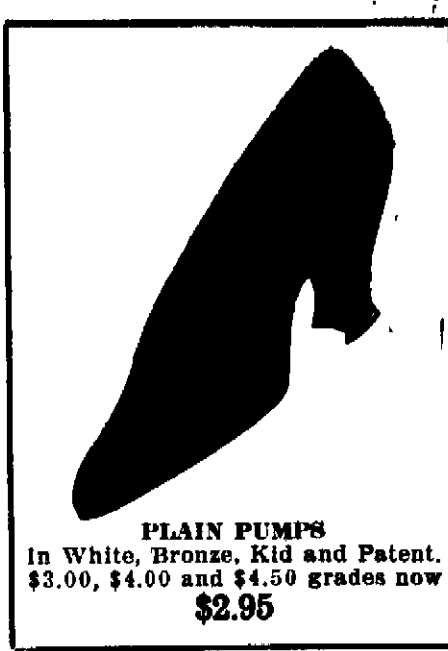

All advertised items bearing a comparative price must be verified by our manager before publication. It is our custom when quoting comparative values to underestimate rather than overestimate the value of an article. Whenever one sees in our advertisements that the original value of an article is so and so, it may be taken for granted that the comparison is made only after careful thought and appraisal of the merchandise in question.

These generous reductions offer a great opportunity to those thrifty women who look to the future. For the mark-downs almost double in importance when you think of the fact that the cost of making stylish shoes like these has advanced fifty cents to a dollar during the last few weeks. Remember also the goods, all sizes in new style, perfect fitting Walk-Over Shoes. Most of the patterns are so new that they will be fashionable for wear another season.

The fire was extinguished with a bucket of water. It is thought that the cigar stump was carelessly thrown into the cellar through the grating on the street in front of the place.

GREAT LOSS OF PROPERTY IS REPORTED
Tropical Storm Ties Up Traffic on Southern Roads—News of Damage Meagre.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, July 7.—The tropical storm which struck the Gulf coast Wednesday with a yet unaccountable toll of lives, and property is now over north Mississippi and moving northeastward with a diminished energy. The weather bureau today reported that the wind velocity at Mobile, Ala., during the height of the storm, was 106 miles an hour and at Pensacola, Fla., its velocity was 80 miles an hour. High winds, the report says, were not reported from interior points but there were reports of heavy rain in Alabama and Mississippi and a heavy general downfall throughout the south as far north as Tennessee. There are indications that the rain may reach the Ohio valley Saturday.

Reports of the damage done by the storm along the Gulf coast and in Mississippi and Alabama were still meagre today but enough had been established to make it certain the property loss would amount to several millions. Growing crops suffered greatly. Traffic on the more important railway lines was almost completely tied up and wire communication with Gulf points was made impossible or badly crippled.

DAMAGE AT MOBILE.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Selma, Ala., July 7.—A message received here today from Mobile over a railroad telegraph says at least three or four persons were killed there during the hurricane of Wednesday and that much damage was done to shipping and water front property. No word had reached Mobile from Pensacola or other Gulf coast points.

VILLA HEADS 2000 TROOPS, IS A LATE RUMOR
(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
San Antonio, July 7.—General Pershing reported to General Funston today that a rumor had reached him of Francisco Villa's reappearance south of Parral. The report placed the estimate of Villa's men at 2,000.

Trains bearing guardsmen to border stations were moving in fewer numbers today. The greater part of the national guard that was prepared to respond to the call for service already had reached the border.

HAVE EVACUATED JIMINEZ.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
El Paso, July 7.—The Villa forces have evacuated Jiminez and railway communication has been restored with Mexico City, according to a report received today by General Gonzales, at Juarez, from General Trevino at Chihuahua City. General Trevino reported that Carranza cavalry is in pursuit of the bandits.

An Easy Way to Get Fat and Be Strong
The trouble with most thin folks who wish to gain weight is that they insist on drugging their stomachs or stuffing it with greasy foods; rubbing on useless "flesh creams," or following some foolish physical culture stunt, while the real cause of thinness goes untouched. You cannot get fat until your digestive tract assimilates the food you eat.

There is a preparation known to reliable druggists almost everywhere which seemingly embodies the missing elements needed by the digestive organs to help them convert food into rich, fat-laden blood. This modern treatment is called Sargol and has been termed the greatest of flesh-builders. Sargol aims through regenerative, re-constructive powers to coax the stomach and intestines to literally soak up the fattening elements of your food and pass them into the blood, where they are carried to the starved, broken-down cells and tissues of your body. You can readily picture what result this amazing transformation should produce as with increased weight the cheeks fill out, hollows about neck, shoulders and bust disappear and from 10 to 20 pounds of solid, healthy flesh is added to the body. Sargol is absolutely harmless, inexpensive, efficient. Evans Drug Store, W. A. Erman, 33 N. Third St., and other leading druggists of this vicinity have it and will refund your money if you are not satisfied, as per the guarantee found in every package.

Note:—Sargol is recommended only as a flesh builder and while excellent results in cases of nervous indigestion, etc., have been reported care should be taken about using it unless a gain of weight is desired.

BOAT DRIVEN ASHORE; CREW WAS RESCUED
(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New Orleans, July 7.—The Norwegian steamship Freda, from New Orleans, June 27, for Progreso, Mexico, was driven ashore on Alacran reef in the Gulf of Mexico during heavy weather June 29. A cablegram from Progreso today to the Freda's agents said Captain Wick and the crew of 21 were taken off by the steamer Tehuantepec which was sent from Progreso to search for the overdue Freda.

Direct reports received from virtually every point in the area swept by the storm indicated today that the damage to property and growing crops in Mississippi, Alabama, West Florida and southeastern Louisiana would aggregate several million dollars.

Damage in Mobile to buildings and other property was estimated at about $50,000 and merchant stores were said to have been injured by wind and water about $500,000 additional. Reports from Pensacola said the principal damage had been along the water front and to shipping but details were lacking. Telegraph and telephone officials said today it probably would be several days before wire communication was restored with these two cities. All points along the Mississippi have been heard from and the damage in that section was reported not so severe as had been expected. Apparently the greatest property losses were in the interior of Mississippi and Alabama.

Mobile reports that a number of vessels had been beached or lost coming into the bay from the Gulf during the storm.

Persons arriving here today from Biloxi, Miss., reported that five schooners, with crews of six men each, were believed to have been in the Gulf beyond Chandeleur Island when the storm struck and that their fate was not known. Dozens of schooners and other small craft were washed ashore along the beach at Biloxi and Deer Island.

Virtually all railroads were operating regular trains in and out of New Orleans today with some delay.
